ARTICLE 9 - CODE OF CONDUCT (REMINDER)

The focus of the annual RMC Grand Finals is purely on sporting matters and we, Organizer and Promoter (BRP-Rotax), ask all participants and supporters to respect this. We do not represent any political position. Organizer staff, BRP-Rotax and the Rotax karting team want to point out that the RMCGF is a safe and neutral international sport event for all nations and we focus on the sport that we all love.

Also we remind all the Competitors, Entrants, Mechanics and everyone present in the RMCGF 2024 that, as per

SUPPLEMENTARY REGULATIONS

DD2 MASTER | DD2 | SENIOR MAX | JUNIOR MAX
E20 SENIOR | E20 MASTERS

Article 1.2 of the FIA Statutes and Article 1.3 of the FIA International Sporting Code :

- That absolutely NO TOLERANCE for the manifestation of discrimination towards race, skin colour, gender, sexual orientation, ethnic or social origin, language, religion, philosophical or political opinion, family situation or disability will be accepted. This stance is applicable towards other Competitors, Entrants, Mechanics and all Officials.
- That discrimination linked to the above is a MAJOR infringement of the FIA International Sporting Code and is as such sanctionable.
- That also this event is meant to reflect the highest level of the sport of Karting.
- That FIA encourage anyone that suffers from discrimination to contact the event organizer and report the offence. Based on the offence, an official report will be made to the Event's Stewards for their consideration and potential action.
