ARTICLE 8 – SUPPLEMENTARY CONDITIONS

8.1 For safety reasons the paddock will close according the official time schedule and it is prohibited to stay in the paddock after this time.

8.2 During the competition drivers/competitors are not allowed to take the kart, or part of it (except the battery and battery charger), outside the track facilities. A Technical Scrutineer may check at the beginning of the day, and before the arrival of the drivers to the facilities, if the vehicle is complete. If it detects the absence of any element of the vehicle, the driver will have the following penalties:

- If it happens before Qualifying: the driver will get a 10 places penalty on the classification of the Qualifying.
- If it happens immediately before a race, the driver will get a penalty of 10 seconds for the next race in which he will take part.
- In the event of a repeated infringement, the driver will be disqualified from the event.
- The detected missing equipment in the kart must be controlled by the Technical Scrutineer and can also be replaced by other equipment. Any costs related with this process must be paid by the Entrant during the kart return either to the chassis partners or to Rotax, depending on the replaced equipment.

8.3. Fines: Fines imposed by the Stewards, according with the Rotax Max Challenge Grand Finals 2023 - Micro MAX / Mini MAX / E20 Senior / E20 Masters / E10 Mini Sporting Regulations must be paid immediately to the stewards.

The total amount of those fines may be donated by the Organizer to Royal Humanitarain Foundation, 649 Rd No. 2811, Seef Kingdom of Bahrain

After the event, organizer will send a copy of the receipt to Rotax and to BMF confirming the donation to the institution.

8.5. Race numbers: provided by the Organizer only.

8.6. Official Notice Board: will be digital, available on the Rotax Global App. The App is mandatory to be downloaded by the Entrant.

ARTICLE 8 - CODE OF CONDUCT (REMINDER)

The focus of the annual RMC Grand Finals is purely on sporting matters and we, Organizer and Promoter (BRP-Rotax), ask all participants and supporters to respect this. We do not represent any political position. Organizer staff, BRP-Rotax and the Rotax karting team want to point out that the RMCGF is a safe and neutral international sport event for all nations, and we focus on the sport that we all love.

Also we remind all the Drivers, Entrants, Mechanics and everyone present in the RMCGF 2023 that, as per Article 1.2 of the FIA Statutes and Article 1.3 of the FIA International Sporting Code :

- That absolutely NO TOLERANCE for the manifestation of discrimination towards race, skin colour, gender, sexual orientation, ethnic or social origin, language, religion, philosophical or political opinion, family situation or disability will be accepted. This stance is applicable towards other Competitors, Entrants, Mechanics and all Officials.
- That discrimination linked to the above is a MAJOR infringement of the FIA International Sporting Code and is as such sanctionable.
- That also this event is meant to reflect the highest level of the sport of Karting.
- That FIA encourage anyone that suffers from discrimination to contact the event organizer and report the offence. Based on the offence, an official report will be made to the Event's Stewards for their consideration and potential action.
